

TANJAY HOUSE - BEFORE & AFTER SHOTS

Bino Guerrero rode with the Google Street View van taking pictures. This is a view of the house in Dec 2015.

In Jan 2009, I took this picture just before the sari-sari store was demolished. This space was a botica for many years, Far left photo shows the house and botica "Farmacia San Rafael" in the early 1960's.

Left photo is probably circa 1980's. Store front is barely shown. Low fence later raised.

They say only one house in the entire town remains standing from pre-war days: the Tiongson house, now empty and being sold by the present Lhuillier owners. Right in front of that house is the plaza. Picture above is a 1935 view of the plaza, volunteered by Penn Larena. We enjoin others to send in their old town photos so we can document them.

Danny Gil (ferngil@aol.com)

21 June 2016