

ABAD FAMILY TREE

originally of Barili, Cebu
Version 2 - 6 Nov 2015

INTRODUCTION:

This is one of the standard print-outs of the Family Tree Maker Genealogical Software.

This Intro and the Appendix are edited in.

The print-out is generated from data the undersigned encoded into a Genealogical Project Database from information taken from the Abad Family Tree Genealogy submitted by Gemino "Jimmy" Abad as a 13 page PDF file, collated by his brother, Tony.

A chart from the blog of genealogist Todd Cabrera Lucero shows the Abads descended from the Royal Houses of Sulu, Brunei and Maguindanao. It is reproduced on the last page.

The Database is a large collection of family trees gathered over the years from various sources. Some new entries may already be on the database as a spouse of a member of an earlier family tree, in which case these duplicates are merged. Such a case here links the Abads and Ferrers.

The format of this print-out is as follows:

1. Arabic numeral prefix to each name is a unique number for each individual.
2. Names with a # prefix means that the name will appear again in later generations, in reference to their children.
3. Roman numeral prefix is the order of birth for siblings.
4. Small superscripted numbers indicate generational level of individuals.
5. Parenthetized names after emboldened name are forebears or bloodline of individual.
6. All years prefixed by about are estimated dates based on date extrapolation using logical assumptions of marriage age, sibling spacing, etc.
7. Where full names are unknown, XXX or other descriptive identities are used.

We enjoin the clan members to make corrections/updates as may deem fit, such as filling in the correct names, DOBs, additional children and/or siblings, preferred deletions, etc. If sent back to <ferngil@aol.com>, we will update the database and reissue a new printout. Additionally, we can also printout other reports such as Ancestry Trees, Kinship Reports, etc.

Last portion is the index which lists all the members alphabetically, and their corresponding reference number.

Newer editions of the family tree are posted periodically on the internet on the link below.

<http://tanjaycity.org/familytrees/famtrees.html>

It is also posted as a Genealogical Project in the interactive mode, with various view formats.

Cebuano Families: Loling Bihag and Barili's "Blue Bloods"

Barili's Official Seal

Barili, Cebu has always been a fascinating town. It is one of the oldest towns in the country, having been established as a pueblo in the early years of Spanish conquest. Though most of its old records have been ravaged by weather and time, the town has preserved much of its history and culture through a smattering of church and archival records and the colorful oral traditions that some families still hold true.

One of these old tales is the story of Loling Bihag. This is a tale almost equivalent to those of Maria Cacao's and Mangao's in that they have been retold many times that there is great difficulty in knowing which version came first. A zarzuela or a song and act skit performed on stage was written about Loling Bihag, thus making it even more popular. But the gist of the story is this:

Loling Bihag was a beautiful maiden in Barili who would fetch water by the Tanon Strait. She lived sometime in the late 18th century. One day she rowed quite too far from shore and there was a sudden storm. She was almost drowned had it not been for the rescue by a brave and noble prince by the name of Alimudin. As the story goes, Alimudin was one of the many sons of Sultan Kudarat and was one of the two sent by the ailing ruler far from their kingdom to test their daring. Alimudin returned to his father and presented the beautiful lass as his bride. They had many children and they ruled their kingdom wisely. One of their sons became a Catholic priest who later became Barili's first documented parish priest.

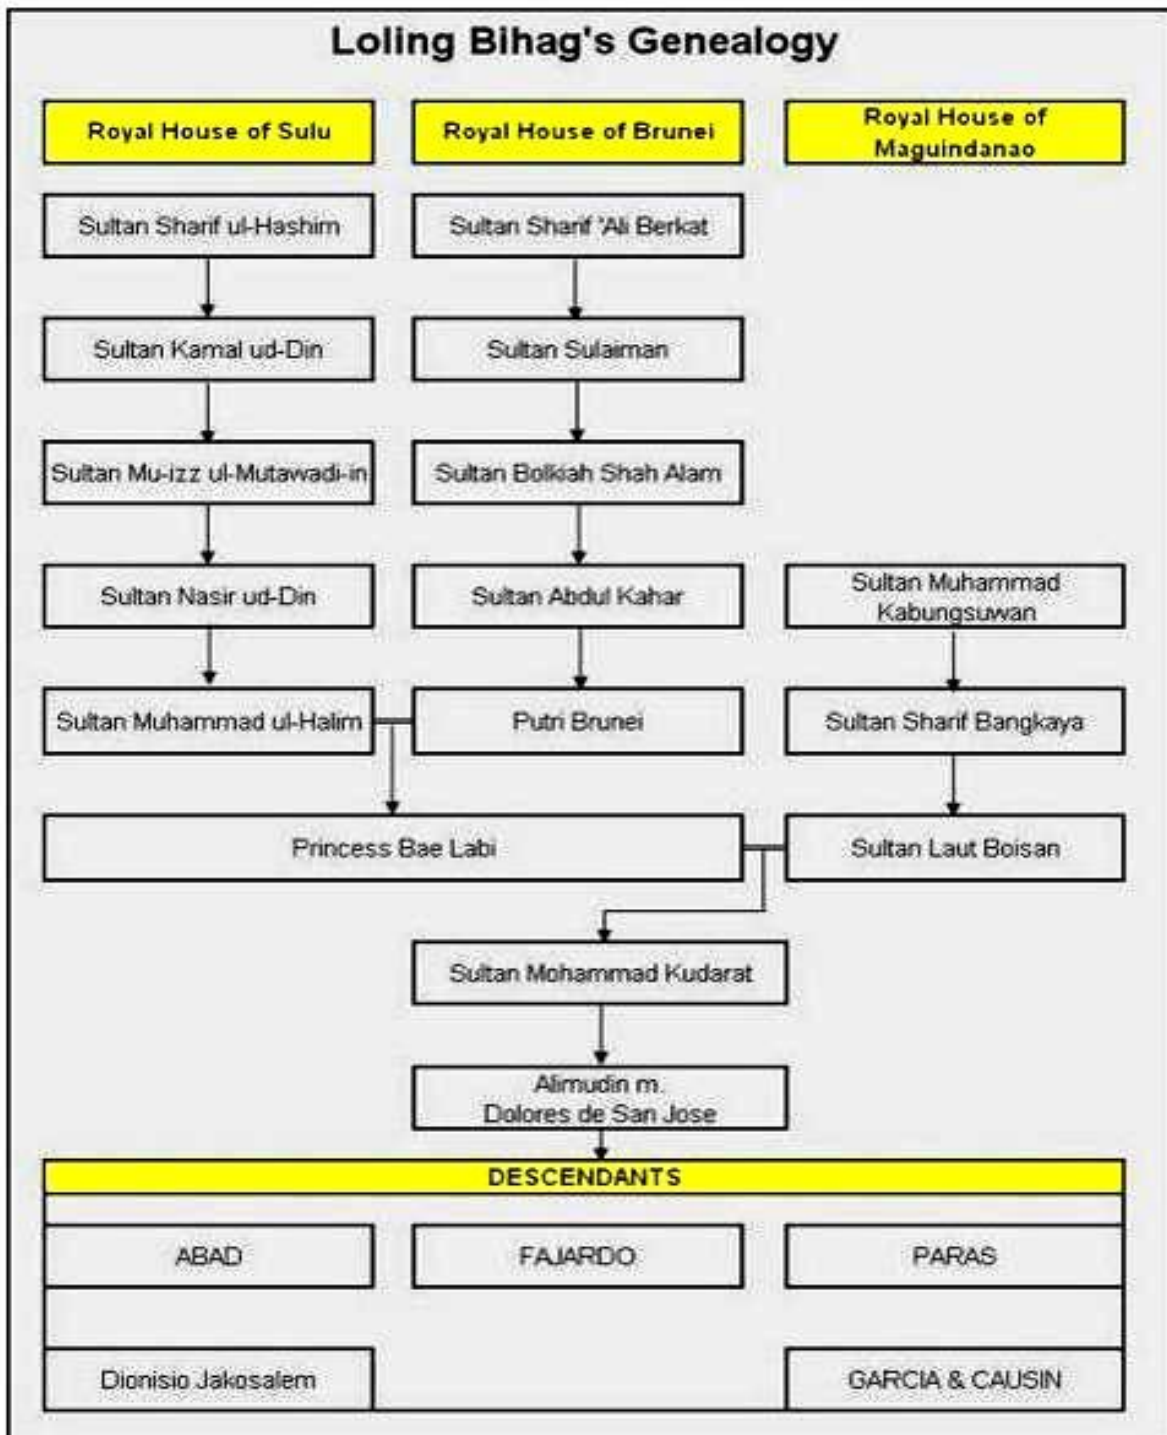

There is absolutely no documentation to support this of course. In the book Barili: A History written by Ms. Azucena L. Pace, she writes that Loling Bihag was actually Dolores Guerrero de San Jose. The priest in the tale was Fr. Cipriano de San Jose, whose signature does appear in the earlier records of the church of Sta. Anna. If we are to accept that Loling Bihag was indeed captured and brought to Mindanao by Alimudin, then we can also accept that Fr. Cipriano had in his veins the bluest blood of royalty of Maguindanao, Sulu, Tondo, and Brunei.

The Royal Seal of Maguindanao

Sultan Kudarat himself was a great-grandson of Mohammad Kabungsuwan, who is believed by many of Mindanao's ruling families to be their common ancestor. He was a Muslim cleric coming from the royal house of Johore who came to Mindanao and is considered as the first sultan of Maguindanao. Kudarat's mother was a princess of Sulu and a descendant of Abu Bakr, who renamed himself Sultan Sharif ul-Hashim and was the founder of the Sulu sultanate. Kudarat was also a descendant of Sultan Bolkiah Shah Alam, one of the earliest rulers of Brunei. And it goes without saying that Kudarat was also a descendant of the noble house of Tondo, being in direct line from Rajah Lontok and Dayang Kalangitan, the famed couple who ruled Tondo and were also the grandparents of Rajah Lakan Dula, Rajah Soliman, and Rajah Matanda.

Of course, the claim that Alimudin was Sultan Kudarat's son is not easy to prove. Although the famed sultan had many children, his immediate successor was his eldest son, Sultan Dundang Tidolay and there is no Alimudin in the partial listing of his children; thus this immediately disproves the story of Alimudin and Loling Bihag ruling a kingdom together. However, what is accepted now is that Fr. Cipriano sired several children, each of whom produced great men and women who made their mark in Barili. His descendants include the Abad, Paras, and Fajardo families, among others. Cebu Governor Dionisio Jakosalem was also said to be a descendant of Fr. Cipriano.

A possible family tree of Loling Bihag

The Abads have produced Roman Abad, Lazarao Abad, Miguel Abad, and Natalio Abad, all gobernadorcillos or municipal presidents of Barili.

The Paras family has Agustin Paras, Policarpio Paras, Aniceto Paras, Tiburcio Paras, Felix Paras, Ciriaco Paras, and Procopio Paras, all gobernadorcillos or municipal presidents of Barili. Another Paras descendant was Rep. Casiano Causin. Another family directly descended from the Paras of Barili are the Garcias of Dumanjug, a family that has produced two Cebu governors.

Of course, these stories are romantic. Whatever the truth, what matters is the constant desire of these families to preserve their family history. That is what genealogy is all about.
